Is Uninterrupted Across Siberia, Report to London Says

LONDON, Sept. 3. - According to The Daily Mail's" Harbin correspondnt, the Allied forces have established uninterrupted connection between their forces across Siberia from the Volga to Vladivostok.

The dispatch, which is dated Monday evening, says the vanguard of the Czecho-Slovak forces from Verkni-Udinsk, eighty miles east of Lake Baikal, have joined hands with General Semenoff's forces on the Onon River, and General Diedrichs, the Czech com-mander at Vladivostok, already is in telegraphic communication with the trans-Baikal Czechs.

"From Pensa on the Volga to Vladivostok," the correspondent adds, "there is new an uninterrupted chain of Allied Entente Allied troops in European Russia, aided by Russian forces, on August 31 captured the enemy's positions north of Obozerskaya, seventy-five miles south of Archangel, according to an official report issued to-day by the British War Office.

The captured position was consolidated apd a subsequent enemy counter attack was repulsed, with heavy losses.

The Allied troops are pushing on to Obozerskaya. The guns of the Allied armor train were very effective in the fighting.

Mutiny Is Reported in Russian Force Opposing Bolsheviki in Siberia

HARBIN, Wednesday, Aug. 28.— Fifty motor trucks and eighteen tour-ing cars passed through here to-day to join the Czecho-Slovak forces on the regiment have returned to Harbin. They relate stories of treachery by some soldiers to their officers. They state that one cavalry officer who orstate that one cavalry officer who ordered his squadron to charge the Bolshevik forces at Kamenriboloff was not followed by his men. On being surrounded by the enemy the officer killed eight Bolshevik soldiers with his sword before he was wounded in the right arm. Then, drawing his revolver, he committed evisited.

Chinese bandits held up a passenger train at Kwangohungzu this morning and took 50,000 rubles from the passen-gers. After a delay of two hours the train was permitted to proceed.

Czarina for Alleged Affair With Rasputin

Foreign Press Bureau
The Bolshevik authorities in Moscow are preparing to place the ex-Czarina on trial on account of her relations with the Monk Rasputin, acording to a telegram from Moscow to Copenhagen, says the Exchange Telegraph Company's correspondent in Copenhagen. It is stated that the ex-Czarina has already been removed to a safe place in preparation for the Gregory Rasputin was a peasant who became a monk and first appeared in Petrograd in 1911. He very oon obtained great influence at the Russian court and was credited with being one of the worst influences in Russian social and political life. After the war began it was charged that he was a German agent and many of the Russian failures in the war were laid to him. He was murdered in the garden of Prince Yusupoff in Petrograd at the end of 1916 and his body was thrown into the Neva.
